

Elizabeth “Betty Ann” Rogacki

Elizabeth “Betty Ann” Rogacki has worked with Seafarers’ House for ten years. She has served as a Board Member since 2006. She became Treasurer in 2011 and 1st Vice President in 2012 before becoming an At-Large member in 2013.

In 2008, Mrs. Rogacki and her husband Fred received Seafarers’ House Donor of the Year award at the Valentine Appreciation Luncheon. In 2012, she was honored at the South Florida Business Leaders’ Luncheon. She and her husband also are Charter Members of the Seafarers’ House Legacy League.

Mrs. Rogacki is Vice President of International Warehouse Services Inc., in Fort Lauderdale, a company that she and her husband started in 1984. Today, IWS is one of the oldest and largest warehousing/distribution companies servicing Port Everglades.

Mrs. Rogacki has been an active member in the Port Everglades community for the last 30 years. She is a member of the Port Everglades Association and also was a member of the Port Everglades Propeller Club. She also has been an active sponsor with organizations including Family Central, Children’s Home Society, Feeding God’s Children, and Sheridan House Family Ministries.

Mrs. Rogacki earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in education from Rowan University in Glassboro, New Jersey. She moved from New Jersey to South Florida in 1980.